Public Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale his ESTABLISHMENT on the north side of Cameron-street, situated on the centre of the square between the Bank of Alexandria and the City Tavern—consisting of a three story with two stories in the rear, the whole covered with slate and running in one range of buildings from the front 117 feet 6 inches. The house contains twelve rooms, (besides the store and cellars; 10 of them with fire places, some of them spacious and elegant, and few less than 15 by 18 feet in the clear, except on close room; one front and two back stair-ways, a kitchen with two fire places, with stoves for cooking, over which are servants' rooms, adjoining a pantry, smoke house and other necessary back buildings.

The cellars are large, floored and fitted up in the neatest manner, equal, if not superior to any in the district; the floor over which, is finished in the best style, and has been occupied for a length of time pass as a fancy store, consisting of China, Delf, Glass and Hardware, &c. The cellars as a Wine Grocery and Spirit Store, &c.

The purchaser can have the goods on hand, which comprise a good assortment and have been carefully selected at cost. On the house, so far, there has been expended and paid upwards of $12,000. Nearly 16 feet of the lot in front remains to be built on.

The buildings are insured and nearly complete in every particular, and on examination will be found to be an establishment equalled by few here or elsewhere.

About two thirds of the amount for house goods, &c. would be required in hand, or in approved notes at short date; on the remainder a long credit will be given.

He would wish, also, to sell, on a credit, or would barter for goods, or property in the district—two squares of two acres each, in the town of Jefferson, Ohio. Both squares join in with the public square, on which has been erected the market-house, court house, jail, &c.

The squares are divided into half squares, by 38 feet alleys, and to each half square there is attached 8 acres of land, more or less, adjoining the town and town farms, and to each square the remaining 100 acres, further distant. This settlement is in a flourishing state, being the county and post town, situated on the river Grand, a short distance from Lake Erie, the soil rich and of first rate quality.

Should he not be able to effect the sales above stated in a short time, on liberal and fair terms, he would have no objection to take a partner in trade, who putting one third or one half the interest he holds in the concern, would reap a proportionable part of the profits in assisting to conduct the business.

WM. DUNLAP.
N. B. Arrangements might be made to accommodate a partner with the whole or part of the dwelling house if necessary.

From the N. York Courier. VINDICATION

Of Van Wart, Paulding and Williams.

The three virtuous and patriotic American Yeomen who arrested Major Andre.

Colonel Benjamin Tallmadge, a member of the house of representatives of the U. States, in a speech which he lately delivered in that body, ventured to ascribe to the celebrated captors of Andre, a character the most infamous and detestable, to their conduct on that occasion, motives the most sordid and odious. He accused these men of being as often in the camp of the enemies of their country, as in our own; of being men, destitute not only of patriotism, but of common honesty and honour; of belonging to that detestable gang usually known by the name of cow-boys. He charged them, in effect, therefore, with being the vilest of thieves and robbers; and in doing so, represented General Washington and the Congress as bestowing the public bounty upon wretches, utterly base and contemptible from mere motives of policy. There was, in this attempt, an intrepidity worthy a better cause; but at the same time a rashness which he will never cease to repent. Col Tallmadge has endeavoured to tear the fairest leaf from our history, and to deprive the yeomanry of our country of a which was his party? to which he theme in which they gloried, and of which they, the lower party. Upon an example, whose influence is not less extensive and important, than was that of the immortal William Tell. If he has done so, upon slight grounds; not from his own knowledge, but from the calumnies of the enemies, and the mere suspicions of an enemy, he has incurred a responsibility, which he must meet; a responsibility from which the personal respect with which he may have been heretofore regarded ought not to protect him, nor general coincide of political opinion to release him.

Upon what grounds did the colonel accuse these men of being Cow boys? of being as often in the enemy's camp, as in our own? Did he know the facts? If he did, he must have seen them steal, he must have seen them in the enemy's camp! But he does not pretend this.—What then is the evidence of these facts? At most hearsay—which might indeed be true—but it might also be, as in fact it was, false.—This evidence was assuredly too loose, for the charge he advanced, against men whose services had certainly been important; and who, absent, were not in a condition to justify themselves.—The colonel is a Christian. Did he here observe the golden rule? The colonel has his enemies; how would he feel, if the community should judge of his character, by their calumnies?

The utmost that can be said in palliation of col. Tallmadge's conduct, is that he believed what he said to be true. He believed them to be Cow-boy plunderers, because he heard so?—He believed they would have permitted Andre to proceed, if he had more to give them, because Andre said he was of that opinion! Upon such grounds the col. employed the weight of his character, and the authority of his place, to consign to infamy the three men who had saved West Point and the army!

There is not a court of justice in Christendom which would not spurn such evidence. There can therefore be no fear that it will be received by a grateful people. And altho' we are fully persuaded that nothing has appeared to put the accused upon their defense, yet we proceed, gratuitously to lay before our readers, such conclusive testimony as will satisfy the whole world.

And first, as to these men being Cow boys.—Their neighbours would be, of all other, most likely to know the fact, if it were so: and the annexed certificate from men aged & venerable, will show that they were not even suspected. But the oath of Mr. Van Wart is decisive.

As to the second point, whether the captors of Andre would have released him for a very large bribe, provided he could immediately have paid it, that is a circumstance which could be known only by themselves. And Mr. Van Wart expressly denies the imputation in the annexed affidavit.

The only possible question that can remain is, whether the witness is worthy of credit. To this point, we bring men who have known him from his infancy, men whose venerable hairs are silvered by age; they speak to us from the verge of the grave, and they unite in the declaration that no man is more entitled to be believed than Isaac Van Wart!

The nature of the case does not admit of testimony more precise, perfect and conclusive.—The refutation is solemnly sworn to, and by a man who in moral and religious deportment during a long life, has had no superior.

ISAAC VAN WART'S AFFIDAVIT.

Isaac Van Wart of the town of Mount Pleasant, in the county of Westchester, being duly sworn, doth depose and say, that he is one of the three persons, who arrested Major Andre, during the American revolutionary war, and conducted him to the American camp. That he this deponent together with David Williams and John Paulding, had secreted themselves at the side of the highway, for the purpose of detecting any persons coming from or having unlawful intercourse with the enemy, being between the two armies; a service not uncommon in those times. That this deponent and his companions were armed with muskets, and upon seeing Major Andre approach the place where they were concealed, they rose and presented their muskets at him, and required him to stop, which he did. He then asked them whether they belonged to his party? and then they asked him to which was his party? to which he them, in which they gloried, and of which they, the lower party. Upon an example, whose influence is not less extensive and important, than was that of the immortal William Tell. If he has done so, upon slight grounds; not from his own knowledge, but from the calumnies of the enemies, and the mere suspicions of an enemy, he has incurred a responsibility, which he must meet; a responsibility from which the personal respect with which he may have been heretofore regarded ought not to protect him, nor general coincide of political opinion to release him.

ISAAC VANWART.
We the subscribers, inhabitants of the county of Westchester, do certify, that

During the revolutionary war we were well acquainted with Isaac Van Wart, David Williams, and John Paulding who arrested Major Andre; and that at no time during the revolutionary war was any suspicion ever entertained by their neighbors or acquaintances that they or either of them held any undue interference with the enemy. On the contrary they were universally esteemed and taken to be ardent and faithful in the cause of the country. We further certify, that the said Paulding and Williams are now resident among us, but that Isaac Van Wart is a respectable freeholder of the town of Mount Pleasant, that we are well acquainted with him—and we do not hesitate to declare our belief that there is not an individual in the county of Westchester, acquainted with Isaac Van Wart, who would not hesitate to describe him as a man of a sober, moral, industrious and religious life—a man whose integrity is as unimpeachable as his veracity is undoubted. In these respects no man in the county of Westchester is his superior.

MANHEIM, Nov. 1.

A public newspaper contains the following from Paris.

"The French commissary at St. Helena, M. Montcheun, has lately sent to his court a report of the incidents that have occurred at that island since his arrival here, in which the following anecdote among others, has created much laughter. Bonaparte had, since his residence in St. Helena, formed an acquaintance with the daughter of a notary, who is a very lively girl; so much so, that she has been reckoned a little cracked. With this young woman Bonaparte was lately alone in a room, when she took it into her head to draw a sword, which stood in one corner, out of its scabbard, to put herself in the posture of a fencing master, and to push at Bonaparte with the point of it, crying out lustily, 'Now defend yourself!'

Bonaparte, who at first took this as a joke, but soon saw the girl pressing upon him in earnest, flew behind an arm chair; and here the former ruler of the world called to the sentinels, who secured him from his peril. As Casas, Bonaparte's secretary, reproached the young woman for her hostile purposes, inasmuch as, he said, that Bonaparte really loved her, and that she made very bad return for his affection. The girl haughtily replied—"he loved me! No he never loved any one: it is not in his nature."

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 24.

MR. SNOWDEN.
It was not my intention to have troubled you and the public with any further remarks in relation to the superintendent in the discharge of his public duty; but since the friendly information given him is imputed to improper motives, and is considered by him as a personal attack, I am again induced to solicit your indulgence. Though it is not my intention to notice the false declaration of the gentleman at our public corners, yet I cannot forbear remarking, that if he expects to refute charges by declamation and abuse he is as far short of his object as when he expects to make the public believe his disinterestedness and wish for the public interest, by his own say so.

The superintendent, I am informed, has denounced me a liar. Had he read without warmth the communication, he must have seen that I merely stated, that such were the reports in circulation, and that I informed him of them that he might justify himself to the public. Since he declines the investigation in the manner proposed, I consider myself under an obligation to the public and my friends in particular, to support the allegations received from them. If I am somewhat severe the gentleman must attribute it to his own rashness and effrontery, and whether the charge of my being a liar is correct or not, the public will decide by the sequel. To this charge I shall simply reply in the words of the old adage "that he who lives in a glass house ought not to cast stones against his neighbors' windows," and refer him for a solution to a gentleman lately concerned in a contract for lumber with the U. S. The man who respects not the feelings of others can expect but little commiseration from his neighbors. Since the superintendent declines the investigation proposed, and prefers relying on the clemency of council, I can inform him that this cannot save him, that there are men who from experience know they have an independent and conscientious mayor who has taken like himself an oath for the faithful discharge of his duty, and that he will do his duty.

The first charge against the superintendent is, that immunities were granted him incompatible with his office and their being used by him for his own not the public interest. The law prescribing his duty is as follows—page 269, section 4th.

And be it further enacted, that it shall be the duty of the superintendent of police to have the public work done by contract as often as is practicable, for which purpose he shall divide it into as many denominations as the work to be performed will admit of, advertise the same at the market house and in the public papers a reasonable time, and the person whose offer is the lowest shall always be entitled to the preference, provided he shall give sufficient security for the faithful performance of the work.

5th. And be it further enacted, that the superintendent of police shall at no time be concerned in making any contract or contracts, where he is directly or indirectly concerned in the profits arising from such contracts, either in furnishing labor or any article or articles whatsoever, for the carrying on or completing the said work, under the penalty of double the amount of any such contract, recoverable by warrant or action of debt for the use of the corporation.

6th. And be it further enacted, that the superintendent of police, previous to his entering on the duties of his office, do take an oath or affirmation before the mayor for the due and faithful execution of the duties of his office, and give bond with security, to be approved by the mayor, in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the common council, for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office of superintendent of police, which bond shall be filed with the clerk of council.

The 5th section of this law is applicable to the charge, and the questions that present themselves at first view are, has he been concerned in furnishing the materials, and how have they been charged to the public. I answer that he has, and that the charges are enormous. Shingles with the cost of shavings are charged at $19 50 per thousand, which are worth not more at most than 15 50, and this price the gentleman says he paid for them, if so it is surely right that he should be allowed it—on this point I shall make free to express my doubts, even though it should offend. The scantling and joist, long and short, at 6 50 per hundred, when it could have been purchased for 4 50 for the long, and 3 25 for the short. I am authorized in making this statement.

A member of council and lumber merchant, has declared, that had the superintendent furnished him with a bill of lumber for the building, he would have contracted for the supply of the article at these prices. The superintendent in justification of this charge contends, that he was offered nine dollars by a gentleman in Washington for the same lumber, but that he preferred keeping it for the town. What a pity, that his zeal should have operated to their mutual disadvantage. If it was offered for both long and short, the superintendent does deserve some little credit, though not as much as at first view appears, as the average charge for the long lumber is about 7 50 to 8, when it only cost him for the short, 5 25, and 4 25 for the long, as stated by a lumber merchant. I should really like to hear what the gentleman in the city says on this subject, as I cannot see the demand on him, was so pressing as to compel him to give such price for such inferior lumber. It would not answer for his contract, and for scaffolds he could not possibly require the quantity. In what part of this law is the superintendent authorized to furnish materials—I see it not. If no such privilege is granted, then is the charge correct. The superintendent says, I am told he was ignorant of this law. Strange indeed would it be, if our circumspect and prudent mayor should swear him to it and not let him know its contents, and that he should give bond and security for the performance of his duty, and not know this law in particular.—No, no, this won't do.—But how can he get over the information given him by a member of the committee, that he was doing wrong by furnishing the lumber, and this too at the commencement. This I am authorized to state is a fact. Permit me here sir, to return my warmest thanks for his open candid and honorable confirmation of the verity of my first communication. When in error, it is noble to acknowledge it, but to be perverse in error is base.

Charge 2. Omitting the publications for contracts. That this was his duty is manifest—it is admitted that the brick work was advertised, but that the other denominations of the building was not is most unequivocally asserted, and pray Mr. superintendent, why not the other denominations, as the law requires.

The 3d charge is, the assimilation of bills.—I must here state, that this was adduced in illustration of the charge against the committee, but as the superintendent takes it to himself, be it so, and I refer him to a member of the council for information on this point. The most smiling and most favorable construction put on this transaction by that member, operates no little to your disadvantage Mr. superintendent. The 4th charge is the inferiority of the quality of the lumber, and this too, is no mean one against a man who has so long been boasting of the interest he had in the town and the building and the many sleepless nights he spent in drawing or forming the model, one which no other mechanic in this town could have made.

The 5th charge.—That the town has lost 10 per cent by your contracting with one of the committee without a publication. Had I have said 15 per cent I should have come nearer the truth, as one of the committee holds now written proposals at this price. Really Mr. superintendent, is a pretty business, nice supping. Don't you think you ought to be made pay this loss, answer, yes honestly. Something rotten in the state of Denmark; yet I am told you and this council committee and contractors could not agree, that you furnished more than your proportion of the lumber—ha, ha, ha, strange that you should quarrel about this, as you say you alone had the lumber. I now sir, take my leave of the superintendent, trusting that the dressing he has received from my pen will be of service to him in future, and that he should be again receive the public confidence, he will remember he is the servant of the people, and that he is accountable to them for his conduct.

A CITIZEN.

Extract of a letter from Point Petre, Jan. 6, to a gentleman in Boston.
"Lumber is looking up a little, and is almost the only article in demand—beef 6 to 10 ds. fish 3 a 3 1/2. An arrival from New York, with a full cargo of rice, has reduced that article. Molasses is worth 30 cents and scarce. Within 10 days there has been nearly 30 arrivals from the United States. A few days since, beef sold for 12 ds. lumber 26, fish 5, rice 7 1/2, &c. Sic Favorite is still here, ready for sea, and has been to Martinique, to endeavor to obtain a captain for her, but was not successful—there is a prospect now of getting one, and she will probably sail in 2 or 3 days, for Boston. Brig Mary, of Boston, is here, and she will endeavor to get a freight home. Sch. Cynthia has not yet arrived from Turks Island."

At 8 o'clock A. M. 10 degrees below 0

5 do P. M. 3 do do 0

This has been the coldest day, take it throughout, (that has been known in Albany for 16 years. The cold Friday on the 17th Jan. 1816, the Mercury was only 6 degrees below 0, in the middle of the day, which was 1 1/2 degrees warmer than it was yesterday. The wind was very high during the whole day, blowing from the North West. Indeed the weather was so intensely cold, that few persons ventured out to transact business and many travellers who reached the city were more or less frozen.

Boston, February 15.
DREADFUL ACCIDENT.
A letter received here yesterday from Bristol, Maine, dated 7th inst. says—
"One of the most distressing occurrences took place in the town of Jefferson, last night, that was ever known in this district. The dwelling of Mr. Wm. Whitehouse was consumed by fire, with its whole contents, furniture, bedding, and what is most distressing, himself, wife and three children, perished in the flames! Mrs. Whitehouse had been confined four days in childbed. Herself and infant slept in one bed in the same room. Mr. Whitehouse in another room with two other children, and the sister of Mrs. Whitehouse slept in another department. From the information obtained from the surviving children and woman, it seems Mr. Whitehouse, discovering the house to be on fire, caught the two children that were with him and the three out in the snow, and being almost suffocated with smoke, ran out at the door to recover breath; then returned & caught his wife's sister and threw her out of a window of the lower apartment, who was insensible of her situation until awakened out doors. He then attempted to rescue his wife and other children, but perished in the attempt. After the house was consumed, there was nothing of the remains of the three children to be discovered, but part of the bones of Mr. and Mrs. Whitehouse were seen, and from the position they were in it would appear she had gotten out of bed and was near the door that led to the entry. He undoubtedly was smothered before he could reach the room where his wife and children were. It is supposed by many, that the fire caught by ashes being deposited in a wooden box—my opinion however, is that there was a fire left burning in the sick woman's apartment, and that a brand fell out on the floor. This ought to serve as a solemn warning to all not to take up ashes in wooden vessels, nor to leave fires burning without some person to watch them."

A Neat Compliment.
Mr. Henry Erskine, celebrated for his elegant repartee, being in company with the beautiful Duchess of Gordon, asked her, "Are we never again to enjoy the pleasure of your Grace's society in Edinburgh?" "Oh! said she, Edinburgh is a vile place. I hate it." "Madam," replied the gallant Barrister, "the Sun might as well say, this is a vile dark morning. I won't rise to day."

Ship Emily, Beard, 80 days from Leghorn, bound to Baltimore, passed Gibraltar Dec. 23d. The American squadron under Com. Chauncey was cruising off Naples. Touched at Tenerife, whence she sailed Jan. 3d. and was conveyed out by the British frigate Inconstant, capt. Sir J. L. Yeo, as there was a Buenos Ayres privateer then cruising in the bay; Sir James politely offered his boats to tow the Emily during a calm. The Inconstant was 14 days from England bound to the Coast of Africa, had touched at Madeira, and saw there two English and one American vessel, which put in in consequence of having been robbed by a Buenos Ayres privateer, and were in great distress. Spoke the schooner Blazing Star, Ward, from St. Thomas' bound to Philadelphia; and a brig from Boston bound into the Chesapeake. The brig Spartan, Foster, of this port, had arrived at Trieste.
We are unable to learn by the arrival of the Emily what the state of the markets were at Leghorn, or any other port in the Mediterranean. Large quantities of grain continued to be shipped from Leghorn to England, notwithstanding which the people of Italy were reduced to the greatest imaginable distress, and at Leghorn, the inhabitants were daily perishing with hunger.

PATENT.
Patent Columbian Oil.
In respect to which the Proprietor desires to say—
"THE great sales of the Columbian Oil, since it has been brought before the public, prove its intrinsic value, and is a pleasing foreboding of what we have to expect from its more extensive circulation.
Many interesting certificates might be furnished, testifying to the great value of the Columbian Oil, but we have preferred giving but few, wishing to rest more on the merits of the medicine, than on the effects produced by certificates from a source however respectable.
The following are among the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found very efficacious, viz. rheumatism, consumption, gout, pains in any part of the body, but more particularly of the back and breast; asthma, phthisis, influenza, colds, coughs, whooping cough, diseases of the eye and eye lids, tooth-ache, ear ache, and deafness, cholera, cramps, external and internal bruises, sprains and flesh wounds, old sores, ulcers, feloas, scalds, burns, mumps, erysipelous or flux, croop, quincy, diarrhoea or lax, summer complaint of children, indigestion, loss of appetite, nervous debility, piles, mercurial diseases, especially in those cases where the system has been charged with mercury for some considerable time, and in those excruciating pains subsequent to its too great use and exposure. Herpes, or diseased of the skin, such as ring worms, tetters, scald head, &c. stiffness of joints and limbs, palsy, ague and fever, cholera morbus, gravel, gleet, obstructed urine, scurvy, and in almost all cases of a general or local nature.
We are aware that in recommending a medicine in so many diseases, the public especially those who have not used the Oil, may be induced to question its virtues, but a disposition of this nature will soon be dissipated, when they are informed that a great proportion of the diseases are owing to the same general cause.—And in those cases where the diseases differ materially in their nature, the effects produced are nearly the same, although not on the same principle.
A supply of the above just received and for sale by RICHARD H. LITTLE, Druggist, King street.
ON HAND,

Ship Emily, Beard, 80 days from Leghorn, bound to Baltimore, passed Gibraltar Dec. 23d. The American squadron under Com. Chauncey was cruising off Naples. Touched at Tenerife, whence she sailed Jan. 3d. and was conveyed out by the British frigate Inconstant, capt. Sir J. L. Yeo, as there was a Buenos Ayres privateer then cruising in the bay; Sir James politely offered his boats to tow the Emily during a calm. The Inconstant was 14 days from England bound to the Coast of Africa, had touched at Madeira, and saw there two English and one American vessel, which put in in consequence of having been robbed by a Buenos Ayres privateer, and were in great distress. Spoke the schooner Blazing Star, Ward, from St. Thomas' bound to Philadelphia; and a brig from Boston bound into the Chesapeake. The brig Spartan, Foster, of this port, had arrived at Trieste.
We are unable to learn by the arrival of the Emily what the state of the markets were at Leghorn, or any other port in the Mediterranean. Large quantities of grain continued to be shipped from Leghorn to Eng-

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.

A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West India, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or fullness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles, so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.
And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Tænia, or large round worm; the Ascariæ, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will perfectly prevent the vomiting and purging of chint—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the health of the infant part of our citizens.

Showing the mildest and most safe remedy known; and also restore to the old and strength a great number who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases. Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout asthmatic, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

(the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet it effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.
